Books returned by post

Books are sent at your own expense and at your own risk. An email will be sent to confirm receipt. Old and St Luke’s library books should also be sent to this address.

Name:  ....................................................  Unicard number:  ...................................

Email address:  ..................................................................................................................

Barcode numbers of item(s) enclosed:

........................................................  ........................................................

........................................................  ........................................................

........................................................  ........................................................

Forum Library Book Returns
University of Exeter Mailroom
Old Library Building
Prince of Wales Road
Exeter, Devon
England
EX4 4SB